

29 ISMOR TIMETABLE

Monday 27 August

- 1500 – 1800 hrs Registration
- 1800 – 1900 hrs Welcoming drink in bar
- 1900 – 21.30 hrs DINNER
Bar open until midnight

Tuesday 28 August

- 0700-
-0830 hrs BREAKFAST
Late Registration (in Arden Suite)
- 09.30 hrs Welcome by Peter Starkey (ISMOR Chair)
- 09.45 hrs Keynote address by Maj Gen Paul Jaques, Director General Logistics,
Support & Equipment, Army Headquarters
- 10.30 hrs COFFEE
- AFFORDABILITY
- 11.00 hrs Three Defence Reviews in Two Years: Lessons in the use of analysis to inform strategic decisions. Rob Solly, Dstl UK
- 11.30 hrs Transparency in MOD procurement. Peter Goodwin and Michael Bagg,
MOD, UK
- 12.00 hrs Getting affordable solutions – how much to spend and when to spend it.
Craig Clark, DAS UK
- 12.30 hrs Discussion
- 12.45 hrs LUNCH
- 13.45 hrs Public Private Business Models for defence acquisition. Thomas Ekstrom,
Defence Research Agency, Sweden
- 14.15 hrs Practical Organisational efficiency and effectiveness modeling.
Dr John Donohue, DRDC, CORA Canada
- 14.45 hrs Discussion

Tuesday 28 August (continued)

SUPPORT TO AND ANALYSIS OF OPERATIONS

- 15.00 hrs Assessing the risk to deployed personnel on military operations: a discussion of qualitative and quantitative approaches. Ian Graves and Professor Neville Curtis, DSTO, Australia
- 15.30 hrs TEA
- 16.00 hrs Oiling the wheels of S&T? How S&T use Observations, Insights and Lessons (OIL) to enhance Land capability. Alan Hotchkiss and Julie Molloy, Dstl UK
- 16.30 hrs A Case Study Based On Planning for Transition in Afghanistan (NATO RTO-SAS-091). James Bexfield and Dr Cyrus Staniec, USA
- 17.00 hrs Using the Peace Support Operations Model (PSOM) for UN Peacekeeping Operations Training and Education. Dr Jeffrey Appleget. Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey USA
- 17.30 hrs Discussion
- 19.00 hrs DINNER
Bar open until midnight

INFORMAL EVENING PRESENTATION

Yanbian Rising: How China is using economic and military leverage to Integrate North Korea's North Hamyong province. Chuck Hawkins, USA

Wednesday 29 August

07.00 – BREAKFAST
0830 hrs

WORKSHOPS AND POSTERS DAY - Note parallel morning sessions

08.30 hrs Best practice in the use of judgmental methods
Phil Jones, Dstl UK

10.30 hrs COFFEE

11.00 hrs Non-lethal warfare. John Nelson, Senior International Defense Analyst,
American Systems, USA on behalf of the NATO SAS-094 Study.

11.00 hrs Piracy analysis case study. Dr David Sloggett, UK

13.00 hrs POSTER SESSION
and buffet lunch in Arden Suite

14.30 hrs Piracy analysis case study. Dr David Sloggett, UK

16.30 hrs Murphy's Law in war: Clauswitzian friction in modern war. Gene Visco, USA

**

There is an optional afternoon visit by coach to visit Portsmouth Historic Dockyard (in parallel). Coach departs from main road entrance at 13.45 hrs

**

19.00 hrs DINNER
Bar open until midnight

INFORMAL EVENING PRESENTATION

Lessons from the front line of Olympic Games security. Dr David Sloggett. UK.

Thursday 30 August

07.00 BREAKFAST
– 08.30 hrs

SYSTEMS AND CAPABILITY FOR AN UNCERTAIN FUTURE

0900 hrs Keynote address by Simon Jewell, MD Niteworks, UK

09.45 hrs The role of OA in research concept development. Dr Andrew Bennett and Tom Baldwin, Dstl UK

10.15 hrs Improving future systems and capabilities through experimentation – lessons from Nitework's experience of live, virtual and constructive experimentation. Chris Jordan and Lawrence Dack, Niteworks UK

10.45 hrs Discussion

11.00 hrs COFFEE

11.30 hrs Modelling and Analysis of Defense Lines of Developments Using Causal Maps. Professor Dobrila Petrovic and Pawel Zdanowicz, Coventry University, UK

12.00 hrs Approaches for vignette-based analysis in a changing world. Jenny Young and Alistair Morley, MBDA UK

12.30 hrs Standardised tactical vignettes to enhance international defence studies. Jessica Murray, Professor Neville Curtis and Brandon Pincombe, DSTO Australia

13.00 hrs Discussion

13.15 hrs LUNCH

14.15 hrs Enterprise mapping – helping MOD manage its Combat Air Capability. Ed Aubrey, CORDA UK

14.45 hrs Effects of hidden terrain in an urban area on OMTI systems. Yaron Taub, MOD Israel

15.15 hrs Preventing premature conclusions – analysis of human-in-the-loop air Combat simulations. Matthew MacLeod, DRDC, Canada

15.45 hrs Discussion

16.00 hrs TEA

Thursday 30 August (continued)

SUPPORT TO AND ANALYSIS OF OPERATIONS

16.30 hrs Best practices for irregular warfare data quality control. Dr Jeffrey Appleget
Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey USA and Fred Cameron, Canada

17.00 hrs Socio-Technical approach to effective reachback decision support.
Goran Mihelcic, Bundeswehr University, Germany

17.30 hrs Discussion

19.15 hrs RECEPTION IN MAIN HOUSE

20.00 hrs SYMPOSIUM DINNER (Arden Suite)

Ronnie Shephard Memorial Address by Maj Gen (rtd) Mungo Melvin

Bar open until 01.00 hrs

Friday 31 August

07.00-
08.30 hrs BREAKFAST

GENERAL PAPERS

- 08.30 hrs Multi-organisational collaboration in operations assessment and Evaluation: prospects, challenges and implications for practice. Andy Williams NATO Allied Command Transformation
- 09.00 hrs Applications of risk analysis to the Canadian Forces' domestic operations Yvan Gauthier, DRDC, Canada
- 09.30 hrs Statistical analysis of social network analysis methodologies with design Of experiments and quantile regression. Dr James F Morris, Professor Richard Deckro, Dr Darryl Ahner and Dr Dursun Bulutoglu, Dept. of The Air Force, Wright-Patterson AFB, USA
- 10.00 hrs COFFEE
- 10.30 hrs Niteworks contribution to decision support. Phil Taylor, Niteworks UK
- 11.00 hrs Report back from non-lethal warfare workshop. John Nelson, Senior Intl Defense Analyst, American Systems, USA on behalf of NATO SAS-094 study
- 11.30 hrs Presentation of awards
- 12.00 hrs Closing Address
- 12.30 hrs LUNCHEON & L'ENVOI